Bishop's Waltham Museum invites all Friends, Volunteers and potential Friends:

THE BISHOP'S WALTHAM RAILWAY

AN ILLUSTRATED TALK BY ALAN INDER

Alan's talk traces the history of the branch line from Botley to Bishop's Waltham from its opening in 1863 to its closure in 1962, and the subsequent conversion of some of the trackbed to a popular footpath. The talk will cover the social and economic impact of the railway on the town.

Monday 18th February 2019, 7.00pm
Bishop's Waltham Youth Hall (Opposite Budgens),

We look forward to seeing you all there!
